

Anna Glivens

December 8, 1924 - September 12, 2023

Anna L. Glivens was born on December 8, 1924 in Ellore, South Carolina to Fletcher David Gardner and Moudester Shivers Gardner. She was the second daughter of four children. Anna heard God's call and traded earth for eternity on September 12, 2023. She received her formative education at the Brown Chapel Elementary School in Ellore, South Carolina.

Anna began her Christian life of service by joining the Brown Chapel AME Church at an early age and served faithfully and joyfully throughout her ninety-eight years of life on earth. As a servant of God she joined and became a willing worker on many church ministries and associations. She served in many capacities of the church including the Senior Steward Board, Class Leader, Stewardess Board No. 6, the Women Missionary Society and singing on the Senior Choir.

Anna was known far and wide for her one of a kind radiant smile, wisdom, warm spirit, truth telling and definitely her good cooking. She shared her gift of food cooking with the community, church and school children in the Orangeburg County School System. She retired from the school system after years of cooking and serving healthy and nutritious meals to students and staff.

Anna was preceded in death by her mother, father, husband (George Glivens), her daughter (Lottie M. Irick) and oldest sister (Geneva Simmons).

Anna leaves a legacy of service and memories to cherish to her beloved son, David Glivens; sisters, Betty G. Aiken and Neomi R. Aiken; grandchildren, numerous nieces, nephews, cousins and cherished friends.

There will not be a viewing at the gravesite.

Aunt Anna Lee will always be remembered as one of the most sweetiist and kindness and loveable aunt. She was the very last living auntie out of all the aunts from the family of the Glivens. I know that she is now at rest with all that has going on before her. I can only imagine the reunion they all are having Oh what a glorious time up in heaven.
