“ Wow, this is crazy, I had thought about you a few times, we talked that same year, couldn't get in contact with you for awhile..... and now I find out that you passed away 4 years ago..... I'm in shock, I'll always remember you, how could I not..... all the times we had in Augusta (working at RGIS) after I got out the Army and had time to spend.... You were trying to get me to move to SC..... I'm just lost for words, Rest easy JD, tell your moms I said hello..... I know she happy your with her now..... RIP

“ I just found out about of your passing last Friday. My spirit is broken and I have been crying everyday since. I have so many great memories of you Jesse, my friend. You were all smiles the day you used my car to get your driver’s license and passed! We rode just about EVERYTHING that time we went to Six Flags. I remember giving you a ride a few times to and from Georgia Southern and later helping get you settled in at Voorhees. Your friend Reggie helped you get through it too. You were so proud to show me your “stepping” video when you were getting ready to pledge Kappa. Knowing how much Ms Rena loved you and how much you loved her, I bet the was quite a joyful reunion up there...great sadness for us left here. I will forever miss your energy, your zest for life, just “chillin” with you and of course that trademark Jesse smile. Rest easy, my brother. God willing we will see you again. Love and miss you always.

“ To The Reid Family

It didn't matter what I experienced Dan going through he always managed to smile...his infectious smile. We can learn from that. Stay encouraged, we are here for you all to lean on during this time, after it's all over and anytime. We are praying for your strength. Remain faithful cause God has it all in His Hands.

Much Love
