

Wilbur Walley Jr.

March 4, 1944 - November 18, 2023

Wilbur Walley, Jr., known to many as “Longboy” and “Walley”, was born on March 4, 1944 in Cameron, SC. He transitioned at home on Saturday, November 18, 2023, in Orangeburg, SC. He moved to New York in 1968 and then to New Haven, CT in 1970. Walley was employed at Stop & Shop Warehouse, in North Haven, CT, where he retired after dedicating 30 years of stellar service and perfect attendance. He was married to Ella Mae for 50 years, before relocating back to Orangeburg, SC in 2015. Walley could fix just about anything. He was a mastermind; especially when it came to his cars. He dominated the car shows, the racetrack (and street track) and took pride in having the most beautiful, baddest, and fastest cars around. Nobody could beat him! Walley leaves to cherish his memory: children, Marlo and Patrick Simpson of Orangeburg, SC; Brenda L. Evans, Shanette W. Robinson, Wilbur Walley, III, Enico Jones, and Erin Jones of CT; sister, Queen Dash (John) of Winter Haven, FL; 16 grandchildren; 8 great-grandchildren; two nieces, two nephews, and a host of cousins, and friends. He was predeceased by his maternal grandparents, George and Annie Lee Collier; parents, Wilbur and Mildred Walley; brothers, David Walley, and Andrew Tobin; and a very dear aunt, Georgia Lee Collier
